

1 ABSTRACT

2 The described subject matter provides for managing and streaming media
3 content. A server/client component accesses a first playlist that is in a native data 4 format. A translator component translates the first playlist into a canonical data 5 format, forming a second playlist in the canonical format. The content referenced 6 by the second playlist is streamed.